THE LADIES' MAN .-- There are certain arinals, diseased as men, to be found in every community, known by the onme of " ladies' men." The creatures are not aware of the degradation of their position, but seem on the contrary to be rather proud of it. A ladies' man, as the name would imply, is not possessed of a particle of that chivalrous pallantry which springs from a time respect from the other sex. He has an lofty moral sentiment towards woman as such. He views her only as the doll to please, and her the dolly to please her .--He fritters away his existence in attencons which would be graceful in a poodle, but which would be disgraceful in a puppy claiming a higher and lighter breed. His aspiring ambition is satisfied with picking up dropt is mikerchiefs, or mushrid fans, and the desires of his stanted soul are all accomplished when he is made a convenjent occurs to charch, the theatre, or ballroan. His personal appearance is genera ly cileminate, and but for the carlor micht confound even his mother's mill-wife in trelating to his gender. Even if he were capuble, the ladies' man never talks serious ly with a woman. See him when or where you will be wears the same eternal simper on lie face. He appears to think that woman can appreciate nothing but the poor coinage of a brain, innocent of ever having been oppressed with an idea. The fool but little dreams, that in the estimation of every sensible woman whom he has codonvoted to entertain with his senseless twaddle and unmanly foolery, he is the most insignificant of men; that he has no more hold upon her least than the last mankey which danced to the organ before her window. A woman, who is worth a: sins, for a wife, who understands the obligations of her life, and is determined todischarge them, would no more think of joining hands with such a thing, than she would live on the scent of a rose, or mend her husband's stocking " The lay of the last Minstrol."

How a ladies' man ever finds a woman to marry is one of those profound invaleries which peoplexes us exceedingly. We cannot importe the sort of woman who would with eyes and cars open, venture down the stream of time with such a miserably weak and shallow barque. Homeopathic soup is men compared to the intellectual food the ladies' man can offer to the mind of a wa-

LAWS OF RHODE ISLAND.

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS. In thing I Amerity, May Seekin, A. D., 1850. RESOLUTIONS on Slavery, the folioussion of California, and the delivery of per oas held to labor. Resolved, That, in the opinion of this General Assembly, the provisions of the Ordinance of 1797, with respect to slavery, should be applied to all the territories of the United States now possessed by these or hereafter arquired, and enforced by such forther provisions and sanctions of liw as the exigency of the case may require.

Remixed, That the people of Rhode Island cherish an unabated attrehment to the Union and the Constitution, which is its surest guarantee; that appreciating the inestimable blessings which flow from that instrument they think it the dictate of wisdoin rather to encounter and overcome and evils, which may be incident to its opera tion, by a just and liberal interpretation of its provisions, than to aim at removing them by destroying it; that these, in their oninion, are the sentiments of a large was jurity of the people of the United States, without distinction of parties or sections and ought to di pel any dread of those threats of disunion with which we are the

Resolved, That the preservation of our authority over the territories acquired by the treaty with Mexico, which horders on the Pacific Ocean,-the increase of our navigation and commerce with those territories, and the angmentation of our wealth, no less than the diffusion of liberal institu times over every part of this continent, require that the territory of California he admitted into the Union, with the constitu tion it has adopted, without reference to or connexion with the biggared and correly distinct questions with which it is sough to be connected.

Resolved, That the sentiments of the people of Rhode Island on the subject of the delivery of persons held to labor, when escaping from other States, as expressed by the resolutions of the General Assembly beretofore adopted, remain unchanged; that the Sepreme Court of the United States baying decided, that the execution of that clause of the Constitution, which regaines such delivery, is to be regulated, exclusively, by the enneuments of Congress it becomes more important that all abuses incident to its execution be effectually testrained by said enactments, and especially, that the facts of being held to labor and escaping therefrom be established by a decision of a jury of the State where such person is demanded.

Resolved. That the General Assembly, in behalf of the people of this State, disfinetly disclaims any right or pretension to interfere with the institution of slavery in any of the States of the Union which have thought fit to permit its continuance or establishment within their respective limits.

Resolved. That the opinions of the people of this State, on the subject enumerated in these resolutions, having been often and unequivocably expressed, the General Assembly has entire confidence, that their Senators and Representatives in the Congress of the United States will on all occasions respect them, and to the extent of their opportunities and influence give them effect in the deliberations and decisions of that body.

Rusulved, That his excellency, the Governor he requested to transmit a copy of these resolutions to each of our Secretors and Representatives in the Congress of the Umited States.

IMPORTANT SUIT DECIDED.--It will be remembered by our readers, says the Louisville Courier, that the steamer Yorktown was run into, some years since, below Natchez, by the Talma, and seriously injured. Suit was brought by the owners of the Yorktown against the owners of the Talma, in the United Stetes Circuit Court of Ohio, for damages, and a verdict rendered in their favor to the amount of near $10,000. The case was carried to the Supreme Court at Washington where, on the 30th ult., the judgment of the Circuit Court was affirmed, with costs and damages, at the rate of six per cent. per agration.

CONGRESS. WASHINGTON, May 22d. SENATE,-The reconsideration of the Compromise bill was arsomel. Mr. Upham, of Vo., replied to the assertion of Mr. Smale, of Lie, that the system of Mexican promage exists in effect in the State of Vermont. Mr. Saule rejained in an eloquent speech saying he intended no disrespect by this statement, to the general character of that State. Mr. Piatt, of MJ., moved an amendment to the effect, that Territorial legislatures should be prohibited from passing laws either introducing or excluding slavery within their limits, and guaranteeing all laws necessary for the pretection of the rights of property of every description. Mr. Davis, of Miss., accepted this unendment as a substitute for his, relating to the same subject. Mr. Downs, of La., made a speech of considerable length, sustaining the Compromise bill, either with or without the proposed amenda cut. He admonished the South that their only alternative was to secont this compromise or receive nothing. Mr. Mason, of Va., obtained the floor, but virided it to Mr. Soule, who gave way in a motion for an executive session.

House. - The motion for a reconsideration of the reference of Mr. Conrad's joint resolution for the transportation of the mail by accan steamers, between New Orleans and Yera Cruz was debated and finally carried.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole, and took up the question of admitting the delegate from New Mexico to a seat in the House.

Mr. Strong spoke at length against the admission of the delegate. He said the proposition was unprecedented, and inexpedient, in view of the unsettled relations of New Mexico and Texas.

The Committee then rose, and the further consideration of the question was postpaned to the first Tuesday in June.
